

What I would do
with my wild precious life.

I want my life to be acceptable.

I want to graduate from high school.

I want to make it through college.

I want to discover the world, go to places I never would have imagined.

I want my life to be unforgettable.

I want to do anything and everything with my family and friends.

I want to experience everything I possibly can.

I want to know as much as my brain can hold.

I want my life to be worth breathing for.

I want to take risks.

I want to discover something new.

I want to laugh as much as I can until it's my time to go.

I want my precious, wild, exotic life to be worth something and not meaningless and pointless.
