

My plan for my wild and precious life

I always want to be distracted Distracted by family, friends, Dreams, Boys, Work, The next new thing, by everything.

*Always distracted never bored
Experience the unexpected Life is full of surprises and I want to hand in hand experience them. The good and the bad. Especially the bad, horrible, terrifying, and scary ones so I can learn from my mistakes and appreciate my life more.*

I want to be away

I will move far from this town, out of state I hope. Maybe back to my hometown, because home is where the heart is. But then again my toes love the sand so Miami might just be my home.

College

I want to make new best friends and share the crazy and tiring college life with them. I want to know what I am doing with my life when I reach college years. I will hopefully get a job in something I love. Something that will get me where I need to go.

My "New" family

When the time comes around, I will get married. I will have a new family. A new best friend, a person to trust, a person to fill the rest of my short memories with. This will be a onetime thing, divorce won't be a choice. I want little babies crawling around, I want the crazy sister and brother in-laws. I want a new family thats all mine.

Life

Most of all I want to be happy. I want to be successful. I want to be on my own and find my way for a period of time. I want to try and fail and try and succeed. I want to make a path that no one thought I could make.

What I will do with my wild and precious life is experience what life has to offer and survive it happily.
