

With my one precious and wild life

I will bloom like a flower

My life will sparkle like the bright stars in the dark sky

My life will take me on a journey that no one has ever experienced

My life will be phenomenal

My life will take me to a place far far away from this small town called Granbury

My life will have its up's and down's just like an obstacle but i will push past them

My life will keep me going and alive no matter what happens

In my life i plan to one day get married and start my own family

I will try to be the best mother and wife anyone could possibly ask for

I will become half the woman that my mom is

I will set a perfect example for myself, my family, and everyone i associate with

I will NEVER change for anyone

I will Live, Laugh, and love every moment

I will cherish every moment that i have breathing

I will achieve every goal i set for myself

"Life isnt about learning how to get passed the storm its about learning how to dance in the rain"

My life is going to be like a roller coaster it will be adventurous and we won't know when the next turn will be. Now all I have to do is enjoy the ride!!
